WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1897.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1899.

MAYSVILLE, KY. WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10, 1907

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

ACROSTIC.
Everybody laughs to see
Such a plight as mine;
Playground or park and one lone tree
Looks a little out of line.
A superb lot of trees
Not long since graced the place,
And now only one of these Delights the park to grace, Erewhile it fell to please.

—“Your Uncle Bill.”

Yesterday was a combination and mixture of all kinds of weather.

Mr. Perry Alexander, the handsome L. and N. Baggage Master, took a day off yesterday and put in the time calling on his lady friends in the city.

The prayer-meeting at the Christian Church tonight at 7:30 will be in the interest of the C.
W. B. M. Subject “The Need of Consecrated Christian Womanhood.”

New School Building!

Owing to the fact of the School Board's having bought the old Perkhouse (our warehouse) for the site for the new High School Building, we are obliged to move all our vehicles within the next 60 days;
and we have figured that it would be better to sell them than to move, a storeroom in Maysville is pretty scarce just now, and besides it is very expensive to move four or five carloads of crated vehicles.

Therefore!

We are beginning today the most phenomenal sale of vehicles ever held in Maysville,
and a word to the wise should be sufficient.
“If you are contemplating the purchase of a rig of any kind, now is your opportunity.”

next term of the Circuit Court.

DE WOLF HOPPER

Captures Maysville—Big Comedian Delights a Large Audience at Washington Theater

The Shubert production of “Happyland,” as rendered by the De Wolf Hopper Opera Company, at the Washington Theater last night, was probably the most beautiful and elaborate performance ever seen on a Maysville stage.

De Wolf Hopper, always inimitable, was magnificent last evening and as a comedian he never had an equal in his class. The big funmaker had his audience with him and kept 'em
a going for three hours with gurgling merriment, in the role of “King Ecstasious of Ely-sia.” His leading lady, Miss Marguerite Clarke, a lovely little Cincinnati product, was the bright and shining star of the evening and completely delighted the audience with her beauty, her poses and her singing.

The entire support given Mr. Hopper was first-class from start to finish.

The audience was one of the largest and most representative ever seen at the Washington and “King Ecstasious” added over $600 to his already overflowing exchequer.

THE PUBLIC LEDGER is pleased to see that our local stage is being elevated to the plane of a metropolitan playhouse, and a few more productions and audiences like those of last night will give old Maysville the theatrical prestige she ought to enjoy.

“Happyland” opened the new Lyric at Cincinnati, and will open for another week at that house Sunday night, after which the opera will play the season at Norfolk, during the Jamestown Exposition.

Ex-Jailer John Johnson, whose continued

LEDGER, was taken to Cincinnati yesterda where he was placed in the Good Samaritan Hospital for treatment. Ever since the death of his wife, several months ago, his health has been on the decline.

Mrs. Virginia Heflin Turner, Miss Julia Vanarsdell and brother, William, came down from Flemingsburg last evening and attended the attraction at the Washington Opera-house, De Wolf Hopper in “Happyland.” While here they were guests of Mrs. Isaac Woodward of West Fourth street.

Police Court.

Yesterday the Police Court representatives consisted of Mike Boyle, Garfield Boyd, Virginia Johnson and George Hollans, jointly contributed $35 to the School Fund for breaking the law.

SUED FOR $50,000

The C. and O. Railroad Cites the Employers' Liability Act

The C. and O. Railroad Company, in its answer Monday at Lexington to the $50,000 damage suit brought against it by the Administrator of the estate of Michael McGlade, the employers' liability act, passed by Congress June 11th, 1906, is set up as a defense.

The Company avers that this act annulled and superseded the laws of Kentucky giving the right to recover for injuries or death of an employe of a common carrier engaged in trade between states.

The plea is the first made in Kentucky under the new law.

SLOOP—SHERMANS.

Mr. Charles Sloop, aged 23, of Newport, who gave his occupation as that of a carpenter, and Miss Lena Sherman, aged 23, of Mason county, were married yesterday in St. Patrick's Church, Rev. Father Jones officiating. They left for Newport to make that city their home.

Attorney Delmas addressed the Jury in behalf of Harry Thaw Tuesday. His speech laid bare every phase of the Thaw defense and justified the killing of White on the ground of temporary insanity, caused by White's many attempts to seduce and lead Evelyn away from him.

Jerome will sum up for the prosecution today, and in view of the many side-steps he has already taken in his conduct of the case, his speech is looked forward to, not as a consistent legal effort, but rather, as a vain attempt to say or do something to square himself with Jury and public.

Thaw's acquittal is said to be certain.

EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, April 4, 1907.

The Missions!

Easter Day I made a pilgrimage to these milestones of civilization and christianization. There are four of them—the First and Second in fair condition for "ruins," but the remaining two not so well preserved nor interesting. All were built by the Franciscan Monks in the early part of the Eighteenth Century, when Texas was a Spanish possession. Their erection was a stupendous task, as the materials, chiefly small stones and cement, had to be gathered from long distances, in which the Monks were aided by friendly Indians. They are located at intervals of about two miles, and were formerly connected by tunnels long since filled up.

The First Mission, built in 1734, is within the city limits, and the original Chapel, altar and seats are so well preserved that services are held there at stated periods. Like the Alamo, the walls of these Missions are four feet thick, rendering them invulnerable to attacks from Indians, but a poor defense in modern warfare. The numerical order of these structures has no bearing on their age, as they are reckoned as they were reached by the traveler between San Antonio and Mexico. Aside from the Chapel, the habitable portions of the First Mission are occupied by an old German who conducts a dairy and conservatory, scooping not a little bucksheesh from tourists; but on the occasion of my visit he had surrounded and captured so much Easter egg-dye, that he couldn't tell whether the Mission was built by Saint Peter or my good friend Father Jones!

The Second, or San Jose Mission, built in 1711, the largest and by far the most interesting of the chain, is in charge of a courteous and intelligent Mexican gentleman, who takes some pains to "show one through" in return for the modest admission fee of 10 cents. This immense structure, some 200×300 feet, with fifteen acres of adjacent land, was originally surrounded by a heavy stone wall, juts of which are still to be seen, the main portion having years ago been sold for road-making purposes—commercialism thus permeating even sacred things. Immediately fronting the Mission—or Church—proper, is a small burial plat, then a huge adobe Granary where the farm products were stored for safe keeping. In rear and to the South of the Church, but under the same roof, were the Convent, school and dining-rooms, and to this day is preserved the old-fashioned baking oven. On the South, also, is a small room and altar where the neighboring Mexicans worship. The carved door leading into this room is a marvel of workmanship, said to be without a rival, even in the Old World. But the glory of San Jose finds fullest expression in its lofty facade, surmounted with numerous life-sized statues and elaborate carvings that occupied for more than a year a famous sculptor commissioned by the King of Spain to do the work. That these old fellows did their duty well is evidenced by examples of red and blue paint which still brighten outer portions of this massive pile, despite exposure to the sunshine and storms of nearly two centuries! As one gazes in wonderment upon these magnificent ruins, the thought unbidden comes, What of the faithful and self-sacrificing builders of these religious temples in the desert, and what of their devoted worshippers?

***

But if I don't get away from this Mission I'll be charged with preaching a sermon, and Ledger readers know that's out of my line.

Thomas D. Taylor

EAST LIMESTONE.

Miss Ella Parker, of Orangeburg, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Cyrus Cass.

April showers are very refreshing to the young wheat and tobacco plants.

Miss Maude Sloop, of Newport, is the pleasant guest of Miss Lena Sherman.

Mr. Frank Deiterich, of Maysville, was making short calls in this vicinity Sunday.

Mr. Johnnie Wells, of the Orangeburg vicinity, was in this neighborhood Wednesday on business.

Master James Lashbrook was the recipient of a fine young pony recently, presented by his uncle, Mr. James Lashbrook.

School closed at Bernard Friday, April 5th, after a successful term of eight months, taught by Mr. Morton Griffith, of Brooksville, prizes were awarded to Bert and Edna Stevens, each receiving a nice book.

Mr. Forest Sloop had the misfortune recently, to have one of his teeth knocked out by throwing a marble down on a rock, the marble bouncing up and striking him in the mouth. It cost Mr. Sloop $5 to have the tooth replaced not to say anything of the pain he had to endure.

The death of Mr. Hanson Myers, of Rectortville, came as a shock to his many friends in this neighborhood. He was a young man of kind and generous disposition, loving and devoted to his parents, who have the sympathy of all in this community in their deep sorrow.

WORTHY CAUSE

"He That Hath Pity on the Poor, Lendeth Unto the Lord."

What is more praiseworthy, or appeals to one's better nature, than assisting a cause looking to the welfare and interest of the orphan and friendless? Such is the function of the Kentucky Children's Home Society, of Louisville. Maysville is represented on the Board of Managers in the person of Mr. J. E. Parker, who is ever ready and willing in lending his aid in furthering the interests of this grand institution.

It is non-sectarian.

It seeks to place in good homes the homeless, destitute children of the state, regardless of Church affiliations of the parents. The Society carefully endeavors to find suitable homes for its wards. After their placement the Society maintains a systematic watch-care over them, removing them when the relations are discovered not to be for the best interest of the child.

The most needy child is the most earnestly sought. The unfortunate child cannot escape the efforts of the Society to relieve it.

In the year 1897 the Society began its work in Kentucky. In the brief period of ten years nine hundred children have been placed under the guardianship of the Society and have been placed in family homes. In addition fifteen hundred children have been benefitted through the Aid Department.

The National Children's Home Society, of which the Kentucky Society is a branch, now embraces twenty-nine states, and has placed in homes about 35,000 children.

Beyond the current expenses, funds are now greatly needed to build and equip a much needed hospital for the sick and crippled children. Mr. W. F. Payne, District Superintendent, is now in our city and any contribution you might wish to give will be thankfully received.

This city and county has in the past two years sent about a dozen children to the Home.

BAD BREATH

"For months I had great trouble with my stomach and used all kinds of medicines. My tongue has been actually as green as grass, my breath having a bad odor. Two weeks ago a friend recommended Cascarets and after using them I can willingly and cheerfully say that they have entirely cured me. I therefore let you know that I shall recommend them to any one suffering from such troubles." Chas. H. Halpern, 114 E. 7th St., New York, N. Y.

A LASTING EFFECT.

This Evidence Should Prove Every Claim Made for Doan's Kidney Pills in Maysville.

Relief from the pains and aches of a bad back is always welcome to every backache sufferer; but to cure a lame, weak or aching back is what's wanted. Cure it so it will stay cured. It can be done. Here's the strongest evidence to prove it:

C. L. Hubbard, employed in Cablish's grocery, Cox Building, and living at 325 West Third street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"As I stated in a testimonial given in 1900, Doan's Kidney Pills brought me positive relief from inflammation of the bladder and a disturbed action of the kidneys. After some time I felt a slight return of the trouble but again used Doan's Kidney Pills and found complete relief. Now, after nearly five years I feel able to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills with even greater confidence than before. The results of its use in my case have been very satisfactory."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
